section for Friday cooler; northwesterly winds and fair weather. THE FUNERAL DIRECTORS.—Last Association terminated in an enjoyable atlair in the shape of a handsome spreadout of seasonable eatables, prepared by Mr. L. Shuman, and tendered the association by Mr. B. Wheatley as a token of his regard for the association and also in appreciation of its action in electing Alexandria as the meeting dertakers, were invited to join in the estivities—among them a representa-ive of the GAZETTE, who entered the all with the jovial superintendent of the National cemetery, neither of whom could at first understand why they should be the honored guests of undertakers, or what interest they had common with them. They soon had the fog cleared away by being told both were in their element, as the funeral lirectors were the masters of cerenotiles on the sad occasions when claims his own. The keeper death claims his own. The keeper of the cemetery next played his part by keeping the mound green, while the newspaper man placed the capstone upon the last scene of all by extolling the deceased in a pathetic obituary notice. When this truth flashed both felt more at heme and having been taken to an adhome, and having been taken to an ad-joining room and shown the exterior and interior of a specimen of the genus homo (in wax) and being shown how wonderfully and fearfully we are made, they were as much at ease as if they had been in their own lodge room, The bare idea of an assemblage of un-dertakers is rather calculated to impress one with the smell of caskets or crape, or to remind us of the rap-it-ay rap-rap clatter which David Copperfield heard and eventually discovered was the noise from a room where his mother's coffin was being constructed. But fu-neral directors are very much like oth-er people when they throw off the reserve which characterizes them when they strive to respect the sorrows and bereavements which their mission in the carls them to witness. They are in social intercourse jolly, good-natured, gentle and very companionable, which last night's session of their association demonstrated. Some manifested talent in vocal and instrumental music and elocution, while the talks which were indulged in savored of intelligence and ripe minds. The assemblage was called to order by W. D. Diuguid, president of the association, when Capt. Frank Cunningham, of Richmond, who prank Cunningham, of Ricamond, who possesses a good voice, sang "The Blue and the Gray" with fine effect. He was followed by Prof. T. F. McNulty, of Baltimore, who sang "After the Ball is Over." which was highly enjoyed. Mr. B. Frank Kirk, of Pennsylvania, then delivered a partinet all. then delivered a pertinent address upon the calling of the undertaker, the gist of which was that those who followed

Had the music start-ed up a funeral dirge and the lights flickered low, they would have been blance it had previously borne to cas-kets, and after about half an hour was spent in discussing the good things and in social and exhibarating conversation, Capt. J. V. Davis was called upon for a speech. The captain, after some hesitancy and manifesting a desire to back out, got on his feet and said he could neither make a speech, sing a song nor dance, and was consequently in a fix. He knew some poetry, however, and recited in dialect the Teuton's reply to the query, "Is Marriage a Failure?" which was very entertaining, the report was adopted. The election of officers was then held and resulted as follows: Wm. D. Diuguid, Petersburg, president; C. W. C. Woolwine, Roanoke, 1st vice president; Wm. Alexander, Waynesboro', 2d vice president; B. Wheatley, jr., Alexandria, 3d vice president; R. M. Thompson, Culpeper, 4th vice president; M. B. Hamrick, Staunton, 5th vice president; L. T. that should be observed in interments. A vote of thanks was tendered Messrs. Wheatley, Rev. Dr. Carson, Mr. C. C. Carlin, the Odd Fellows and citizens of Alexandria who have added to the pleasure and interest of the meetings. Prof. August Renouard, the most proficient demonstrator in the art of embalming now before the profession, delivered a most instructive and learned talk, illustrating with a manikin the art and manner of his subject.

The association then adjourned sine on the tug Harlow. Virginia has the honor of furnishing the Pr s dent of the International Association in the person of Mr. Jos. W.

Laube, of the city of Richmond, who is now serving a second term in the office.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild until about 12 o'clock, when it became cloudy. Rain began to fall about 4 o'clock. Three prisoners and four lodgers were at the station Justice Thompson this morning disposed of the following cases:

Joseph Pollard and Charles Pines, colored, arrested by Officer Howson for gambling, were fined $1 each.

Edward Miller, arrested by Officer
Davis on suspicion of having stolen a double team in Prince George's county, Md., was committed for a further Xamination.

Lawrence Webster, colored, arrested y Officers Young and McCuen, chargd with gambling, was dismissed, the charge not having been sustained.

Frank Brown, colored, arrested by Officer Howson, charged with gam-bling, was fined $1. Samuel Madison, charged with con-ducting a gambling game, was fined

Wm. Sims, white, and Wm. Wright, olored, arrested for gambling, forfeited their collateral.

Lawrence Bright, charged with robbing cars, was dismissed, he having been previously tried on the charge.

A boy for striking a companion with a piece of brick was fined $1.

Misses May and Laura Walters, who have been visiting Mrs. O. F. Baggett, returned to their home yesterday, companied by Mrs. Baggett and Miss Ida Cogan.

HELD ON ANOTHER CHARGE.-Thos. Murray swore out a warrant last night against a young man named Edward Miller, whom he charged with stealing his watch. Mr. Murray subsequently recovered the timepiece and withdrew the warrant. Upon the case being called this morning in the police court the charge of stealing was dismissed, but the prisoner was held in order that communication could be had with the authorities of Prince George's county, Md., where, it is alleged, Miller stole a double team last May. Miller, it is said, is the youth who a short time ago that occupation as well as embalming should concentrate their powers upon their avocation, in order that all should broke away from Officer Rolla Henry while under arrest. It will be rememtheir avocation, in order that all should become experts. Capt. Cunningham subsequently entranced the assembly with that good old sonnet, "Way Down Upon the Suwanee River," as did also Prof. McNulty with the "Green Leaves of Shamrock," after which all hands were escorted to the banquet hall. The invited guests had lost sight of the fact that they were being entertained by bered that the officer on that occasion shot at the fugitive.

Some Excitement was created on King street, between eight and nine o'clock last night by the capers of a young man, who, it was said, contemplated jumping overboard. Officer Joshua Sherwood followed close in the wake of the youth and took him in charge before he reached the river, and conducted him to his home. It was said the young man had been suffering. that they were being entertained by undertakers up to this time, but upon being scatted at the table, after Mr. C. W. Millen had asked the usual blessing, their eyes while feasting upon tempting jelly cakes noticed that they were surmounted with tiny coffins! Another discovery which threw a sombreness upon the surroundings was the fact that the different varieties of ice cream

But nothing like that occur red, and in less time than it takes to tell it the miniature coffins had been re-tell it the miniature coffins had been re-get on the track of some of the larger game in the shape of men who make Sunday a sort of vanity fair day for the purpose of gambling and other unseemly conduct.

> LIGHT RAIN.—The heavens about 12 o'clock last night became overcast and at 4 o'clock this morning rain set in which continued, at intervals, for several hours. There were indications that this section was to have the much needed settled rain, but to the disappointment of all about noon the clouds broke and fair weather followed. The signal office predicts fair and cooler weather, with northwest winds.

CONFEDERATE REUNION .- The Confederate Veterans at Strasburg are making active and extensive arrangements for the reunion of old soldiers at that place on Saturday next. Lee Camp and a number of others from this city will attend the reunion. It is said that 10,000 persons are expected there on the occasion, and ample preparations are being made to entertain the s owd.

A GROUNDED WIRE.—Travel on the Mount Vernon Electric Railway was interrupted for about three hours this morning by the grounding of a wire near Broomielaw. The grounding of a wire means sending the electricity into the ground instead of on its circuit, which, of course, brings the cars to a standstill until properly adjusted.

REDUCED RATES .- For the Confederate Veteran's picnic at Strasburg August 19th, 1893, the R. & D. R. R., will mittee on finances—J. M. Oakey, Salem; T. A. Fox, Danville; C. H. Sturdevant, Portsmouth.
